Information circular*

To: Members of the staff

From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management

Subject: Review of staff claims for dependency benefits for 2009, 2010 and 2011

1. The purpose of the present circular is to inform staff members of the manner in which the review of their entitlements to dependency benefits for the years 2009, 2010 and 2011 will be conducted. See annex I for details on the types of dependency benefits, annex II for contact locations and annex III for information on the documentation required for the continuance of benefits. The entitlement to dependency allowance is established in staff rule 3.6 and implemented under ST/AI/2011/5, entitled "Dependency status and dependency benefits".

2. All staff at Headquarters and the staff of United Nations information centres, the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and field missions and project personnel administered by the Department of Economic and Social Affairs and the Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs at Headquarters with a dependant recognized by the United Nations must review their entitlements to dependency benefits as described in the present circular.

3. All other offices away from the United Nations Headquarters in New York will be responsible for reviewing dependency claims for their own staff.

4. The electronic dependency questionnaire (e-P.84) in Inspira will contain the information currently recorded for each staff member and his or her dependants in the Integrated Management Information System. Staff members are requested to review that information carefully, make any necessary changes or corrections and certify the accuracy of the information contained in the form, including the question regarding the amount of Government assistance received for each child.

* The present circular will be in effect until further notice.

I. Submission of claims using the electronic dependency questionnaire (e-P.84)

5. Staff members will receive e-mail instructions from the Office of Human Resources Management on how to access their dependency questionnaire at inspira.un.org.

6. Upon receipt of the instructions, staff members who have a dependant recognized by the United Nations shall review their dependency data for 2009, 2010 and 2011 in Inspira and electronically submit proposed changes to the Office using the electronic dependency questionnaire (e-P.84).

II. Retroactive submission of claims for 2011 and/or 2012

7. In accordance with staff rule 3.16, a staff member who has not been receiving an allowance, grant or other payment to which he or she is entitled shall not receive retroactively such allowance, grant or payment unless the staff member has made written claim within one year following the date on which the staff member would have been entitled to the initial payment. In this regard, staff members who had no recognized dependants but wish to add dependants for 2011 and/or 2012, can do so by submitting the required supporting documentation, such as a birth or adoption certificate, to the section that services their area in the Human Resources Service of the Office of Human Resources Management. For more details on the required supporting documents or documentation for continuance of the benefit, see annex III.

III. Supporting documentation

8. Documentation not required. No documentation is required for a staff member to continue receiving dependency benefits for the following dependants: an unemployed spouse, a child under the age of 18 if in the staff member's custody and not receiving any Government assistance or a secondary dependant residing with the staff member on a full-time basis.

9. Documentation required (see annex III). Documentation is required for a staff member to continue receiving dependency benefits for the following dependants: an employed spouse, a child under the age of 18 not in the staff member's custody, a child receiving Government assistance, a child between the ages of 18 and 21 and a secondary dependant not residing with the staff member.

10. Obligation to retain original documentation. Staff members must retain all required original documentation for five years and must be ready to provide that documentation to the Office of Human Resources Management or the Office of Internal Audit Oversight Services upon request, within 30 days for monitoring purposes (see annex III). Failure to do so will result in the immediate recovery of monies and the discontinuation of benefits, and could result in disciplinary action.

11. Staff members who submit the required documentation must present all such documentation to the contact location identified in annex II. Partial documentation is not acceptable and may result in the immediate recovery of monies and the discontinuation of benefits, and could result in disciplinary action.

12. When it is necessary for support payments to be submitted, the following will be considered as acceptable proof: cancelled cheques, money-order receipts, wire-transfer receipts and original records of bank transactions. Cash transactions are not considered acceptable proof of support.

13. The submission of alleged forged documents, the making of an alleged false certification of the information contained in form e-P.84 or an alleged misrepresentation of facts related to a claim for dependency benefits may lead to the initiation of disciplinary action.

IV. Deadline for submission

14. In the cases of those staff members who do not submit form e-P.84 and any requisite documentation within three months of the date of the present circular, dependency benefits will be discontinued and overpayment recovered in accordance with section 3 of ST/AI/2009/1. Prior to the recovery of any overpayment, staff members will be advised in writing of the decision to recover overpayment and of the reasons therefore. Recovery will be made through deductions of 20 per cent of the staff member's net monthly salary (excluding United Nations Federal Credit Union deductions) until such time as the full amount is recovered. In instances where the duration of the staff member's contract does not allow for a deduction at as low a rate as 20 per cent, the overpayment will be deducted at a monthly rate that is sufficient to recover the full amount by the expiration date of the contract.

Annex I

Types of dependency benefits

1. Staff members in the General Service and related categories will receive a dependency allowance for each recognized primary dependant, who may be a spouse or a child or children. The amounts are set out in the local salary scales, which are established for every duty station and which are periodically revised.

2. Staff members in the Professional and higher categories, in the Project Personnel category and in the Field Service category will be paid salary and post adjustment at the dependency rate for the first recognized primary dependant, who may be a spouse or a child. A dependency allowance will be paid for each additional primary dependant at the rates approved by the General Assembly.

3. The conditions for the recognition of a dependency benefit on account of a spouse, child or children or secondary dependant of the staff member are set out in paragraph (a) of staff rule 3.6 and in administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/5.

Dependent spouse

4. A spouse will be recognized as a dependant when his or her gross occupational earnings, if any, do not exceed the limit established for this purpose as set out in staff rule 3.6 (a) (i) and in administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/5, section 2.1, for a particular calendar year.[a] All earnings limits are based on the salary scales in effect on 1 January of the year concerned.

Dependent child or children

5. The conditions for the recognition of a dependency benefit on account of a child or children of the staff member are set out in staff rule 3.6 (a) (ii-iv) and administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/5, section 3. Dependency benefits on account of children with a disability will be paid in accordance with the provisions of ST/AI/2011/5, section 4.

Secondary dependants

6. The conditions for the recognition of a dependency benefit on account of a secondary dependant of the staff member are set out in staff rule 3.6 (a) (v) and administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/5, section 5. When a secondary dependant is recognized, a benefit will be paid at the rate determined by the General Assembly for staff in the Professional and higher categories, in the Project Personnel category and in the Field Service category. For staff in the General Service and related categories in New York, the allowance will be paid in the amount set out in the local salary scales, as periodically revised, that are established for every duty station.

[a] In New York, the earnings limit for 2009 was $40,238 (gross salary in effect on 1 January of the year concerned for a staff member at the G-2, step I, level) and for 2010 it was $40,238. For 2011, the earnings limit in New York was $40,238. For a spouse working in a country other than that of the staff member's duty station, the limit is the gross salary of the lowest entry level of the General Service salary scale applicable in the country of the spouse's place of work. For staff in the Professional category and above serving in any duty station, the limit may not be less than the equivalent of the G-2, step I, gross salary for New York.

Annex III

Required documentation for continuance of benefits

The following table summarizes the documentation required as evidence of a staff member's entitlement to dependency benefits for 2009, 2010 and 2011.

1.	For a spouse with no occupational earnings and claimed as a dependant	No additional documentation is required.
2.	For a spouse with occupational earnings and claimed as a dependant	Proof of gross occupational earnings: W-2 form, tax return or an original statement of earnings from spouse's employer.
3.	For every child claimed as a dependant	An original birth certificate must be presented when the child is claimed as a dependant for the first time.
4.	For a child under the age of 18 residing with the staff member	No additional documentation is required.
5.	For a child (natural or legally adopted) not residing with the staff member nor with the other parent (except as provided in number 6, below)	Proof of all payments made directly to the child or to his/her legal guardian for the required amount during 2009, 2010 and 2011, in the form of cancelled cheques, money-order or wire-transfer receipts, or records of bank transactions. The amount of support should be at least equal to the amount of the dependency benefit received from the Organization. In addition, in the case of minor children, a notarized affidavit from the legal guardian must be provided attesting to the legal guardianship of the child, that the child resides with him/her and that the staff member is providing continuous support for the upkeep of the child. Cash transactions are not considered acceptable proof of support.
6.	For a child of a staff member who is not the custodial parent	The original or certified copy of the divorce decree or other court document specifying the amount of child support to be paid by the staff member, plus proof of payment in the year concerned in the form of cancelled cheques, money-order or wire-transfer receipts or records of bank transactions. Cash transactions are not considered acceptable proof of support. The amount of payment should be at least the amount of the court-ordered child support, or the amount of the child dependency benefit received from the Organization, whichever is higher.

		In the absence of a court document, an original notarized affidavit from the custodial parent must be provided attesting that the staff member provided continuing support and specifying the amounts paid during 2009, 2010 and 2011, along with the proof of payment described in the previous paragraph.
7.	For a child between the ages of 18 and 21[a]	Staff members who were not in receipt of an education grant should submit an original completed form P.41/B (certificate of school attendance) for the school years 2008/09, 2009/10 and 2010/11. Where the school year coincides with the calendar year, form P.41/B should be submitted for 2009, 2010 and 2011. No additional documentation is required for a child for whom the staff member received an education grant for the academic years 2008/09, 2009/10 and 2010/11.
8.	For a child of a staff member who is in receipt of Government assistance	Original Government assistance documents reflecting the amounts received each year.
9.	For a secondary dependant who resides with the staff member	Staff member's certification of support provided on form e-P.84.
10.	For a secondary dependant who did not reside with the staff member[b]	Proof of all payments made directly to the secondary dependant for the required amount during 2009, 2010 and 2011, in the form of cancelled cheques, money-order or wire-transfer receipts or records of bank transactions. Cash transactions are not considered acceptable proof of support. The secondary dependant must be reflected as the recipient on all proof of payment. Staff member must provide one half or more of the dependant's support and, in any case, at least twice the amount of the dependency allowance.

[a] Dependency status is recognized through a period of vacation between school years when the child enrols for full-time attendance during the regular school year. Otherwise, the dependency status ceases as of the last day of full-time attendance at the educational institution. The required forms are available on iSeek under Quick Links/Forms/Allowances and Benefits or from the Executive or Administrative Offices at Headquarters and local Personnel Offices.

[b] At the time of establishment of an entitlement to a benefit for a secondary dependant, staff members should submit in person their own birth certificate as well as the birth certificate or passport of the secondary dependant, with an original, complete form P.85 and proof of support as stated above. Please note that the birth certificates and/or passport must be original or certified true copies.
